SUNSHINE OILSANDS LTD.
Announcement of results for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2013

HONG KONG - (HKEX: 2012; TSX: SUO) Sunshine Oilsands Ltd. ("Sunshine" or the "Company") today announced its financial results for the second quarter of 2013. The Company's condensed interim consolidated financial statements, notes to the condensed interim consolidated financial statements and Management's Discussion and Analysis have been filed on SEDAR (www.sedar.com) and with the SEHK at (www.hkexnews.hk) and are available on the Company's website (www.sunshineoilsands.com). All figures are in Canadian dollars unless otherwise stated.

Highlights

- Sunshine continues to make progress in construction of the West Ells project. West Ells Phase 1 and Phase 2 have a design capacity of 10,000 barrels per day.
- The cost estimate for the West Ells project is now approximately $525 million. Sunshine continues to expect Phase 1 first steam to be in the fourth quarter of this year.
- In relation to other core areas, since all statements of concern have been removed, Thickwood is poised for Order in Council approval.
- We are pursuing up to an additional $300 million in funding to continue our capital program initiatives.

A strategic review process was initiated on August 6, 2013 to look at opportunities for additional funding in the form of debt, equity, JV arrangements or other structures to fund the development of our substantial asset base. Development work is to focus on West Ells before major expenditures on other projects are considered.

Message to Shareholders

The second quarter of 2013 was a busy but challenging quarter for Sunshine.

We are excited to see the significant progress at West Ells and eagerly anticipate plant commissioning and start up of operations in the next few months. Drilling and completions on the first 5,000 bpd pad is now done and drilling is nearly complete on the second 5,000 bpd pad. Surface work on the first pad will be finished soon and we will be readying the pad to start steaming. The second pad is expected to be ready to commence operations in early 2014. The central processing facility is progressing well, with the last modules expected to be delivered to the site in September. Construction is moving rapidly, to enable the plant to begin commissioning in the next few months.

We have continued to see cost pressures in construction at West Ells. The heavy rains and flooding in the Fort McMurray region in May slowed activity on site and added to costs for the project. Our project survived better than others as we were able to continue operations throughout the period but we did experience some delays. As well, the heavy and unprecedented flooding experienced in June in the Calgary area impacted our suppliers and the logistics associated with getting equipment to site. These delays and other impacts have combined to raise the cost estimate for the West Ells project to approximately $525 million.

We have been pleased with the progress on our other projects. Our second planned project at Thickwood has been advancing through regulatory approval. We believe the project will soon receive government approval to proceed since all public statements of concern have now been removed.

The delays and higher capital costs at West Ells, combined with monies spent on early stage development of our other projects, has increased the urgency of us accessing incremental capital. We are looking to secure financing of up to $300 million to allow us to continue to advance our projects.

Given the state of current markets and our financial position, we are focusing capital on West Ells and deferring our other attractive opportunities until capital markets improve and again recognize the high value opportunities captured in our asset base.

During the second quarter, we saw existing shareholders continue to support the company through increasing their ownership stake. We appreciate their support and that of all of our stakeholders as we work through these challenging times to validate the captured value of our large and attractive asset base. We expect the enormous embedded value in the asset base will receive better value recognition in the markets as we move toward first production over the next few months and realize increasing production in the coming year.

We thank you for your support through the challenging financing times. We believe we will be positioned to continue development at West Ells and look to expand into other asset areas as incremental funding is secured.

Overview

Sunshine is a major holder and developer of oil sands resources with approximately 70 billion barrels of total Petroleum Initially In Place ("PIIP") where total PIIP is a sum of discovered and undiscovered PIIP components. With approximately 5.1 billion barrels of contingent resources and 446 million barrels of proved plus probable ("2P") reserves, the Company has significant commercial development potential.

The Athabasca region is the most prolific oil sands region in the Province of Alberta, Canada. Canada's oil sands represent the largest oil resource found in a stable political environment located in the western hemisphere and the third largest oil resource in the world, with 169 billion barrels of recoverable resource. The Canadian oil sands contain the largest single source of supply of oil imported into the United States.

The Company is focused on evaluating and developing these assets with the first project being an initial 10,000 barrels per day plant, currently under construction at West Ells. Phase 1 of West Ells is designed for 5,000 barrels per day with first steam expected late in the fourth quarter of 2013. Phase 2 will add an additional 5,000 barrels per day and is expected to have first steam in the second quarter of 2014.

The Thickwood and Legend projects are planned for 10,000 barrels per day initially each. The regulatory approval for Thickwood is anticipated in the third quarter of 2013 while Legend approval is expected late in 2013.

As at June 30, 2013 the Company had invested $935.0 million in oil sands leases, drilling operations, project planning and construction, regulatory application processing and other assets. As at June 30, 2013, the Company had $94.3 million in cash and cash equivalents (high yield savings and term deposits). The Company has no debt drawn on a credit facility of up to $200.0 million, the availability of which is subject to the Company meeting certain tests and which may only be drawn once other sources of funding are substantially used up.

The Company relies on its ability to obtain equity financing to fund administration expenses and future exploration and development of its projects. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern and to realize the carrying value of its assets and discharge its liabilities when due is dependent on the successful completion of a financing or monetizing assets. There is no certainty that these and other strategies will be successful.

Operational Update

West Ells

As at the date of this MD&A, significant progress continues to be achieved on Sunshine's first SAGD project at West Ells. Sunshine is developing the West Ells project in two phases, Phase 1 and Phase 2, with Phase 1 providing the supporting infrastructure for Phase 2 major process equipment. Sunshine has completed:

- Phase 1 drilling and completion of eight well pairs;
- Phase 2 drilling of seven of the eight planned well pairs have been drilled;
- 128 of the 185 Phase 1 modules, skids and non field erected tanks were delivered and installed on site;
- completion of 96% of the Phase 1facilities engineering;
- mechanical completion of all field erected tanks for Phase 1 and 2;
- completion of Central Processing Facility civil construction including significant final grading; and
- 100% of the Phase 1 & 2 main pipe rack modules are completed.

West Ells Phase 1 is designed to produce 5,000 barrels per day of bitumen with first steam projected for the fourth quarter of 2013. Phase 1 will be followed by Phase 2 expansion for an additional 5,000 barrels per day with first steam projected for early in the second quarter of 2014.

Sunshine now expects capital cost for the West Ells Project Phase 1 and 2 to be approximately $525 million, an increase of $29 million or 5.5% from the last budget update in April 2013. First steam is expected in late fourth quarter of 2013. This latest cost increase is primarily due to the impacts from extraordinary rainfall at the project site and flooding in the Fort McMurray and Calgary areas, as well as further work related to design and other changes initiated by the external engineering firm.

Thickwood and Legend

Sunshine has an initial 10,000 barrels per day SAGD project planned in the Thickwood area. Regulatory approval of the Thickwood project is expected in the third quarter of 2013.

The Legend 10,000 barrels per day SAGD project regulatory approval process is ongoing with approval expected in late 2013. Sunshine is completing fieldwork for additional environmental analysis. This work will support plans for significant commercial expansions in both areas.

Alberta Government Initiatives

On August 22, 2012, the Government of Alberta approved the Lower Athabasca Regional Plan ("LARP") to set aside land for conservation, tourism and recreation. The implementation of, and compliance with the terms of, the LARP may adversely impact Sunshine's current properties in northern Alberta, as there is the potential for specific oil sands leases to be cancelled by the government.

The Company continues to have ongoing discussions with the Government of Alberta for compensation of certain developmental expenditures incurred.

Non-IFRS Financial Measures

This MD&A includes references to financial measures commonly used in the oil and natural gas industry, such as cash flow from operations. These financial measures are not defined by IFRS as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board and therefore are referred to as non-IFRS measures. The non-IFRS measures used by the Company may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies. The Company uses these non-IFRS measures to help evaluate its performance. Management uses cash flow from operations to measure the Company's ability to generate funds to finance capital expenditures and repay debt.

These non-IFRS measures should not be considered as an alternative to or more meaningful than net income or net cash provided by operating activities, as determined in accordance with IFRS. The data is intended to provide additional information and should not be considered in isolation or as substitute for measures of performance prepared in accordance with IFRS. The non-IFRS measure of cash flow from operations can be reconciled to net cash provided by operating activities, as determined in accordance with IFRS.

Operational and Financial Highlights

The following table summarizes selected financial information of the Company for the periods presented:

	For the three months ended June 30,		For the six months ended June 30,
Financial Highlights	2013	2012	2013	2012
Other income	$ 622	$ 2,992	$ 1,441	$ 10,053
Expensed portion of IPO costs	-	44	-	16,258
Finance costs	816	66	2,557	17,164
Net loss	8,327	4,673	16,584	37,004
Basic and diluted loss per share	0.00	0.00	0.00	0.02
Capital investments	101,336	90,035	187,229	132,513

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2013, the Company had a net loss of $8.3 million and $16.6 million compared to $4.7 million and $37.0 million in 2012, respectively. The net loss in the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2013 was primarily attributable to general administration costs of $5.7 million and $10.3 million, $2.2 million and $4.9 million for share-based payment expense and finance costs of $0.8 million and $2.6 million, respectively. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2012, the net loss was due primarily to finance costs of $0.1 million and $17.2 million, $Nil and $16.3 million of expensed IPO costs, general administration costs of $5.0 million and $8.8 million, and $2.5 million and $4.7 million for share-based payment expense.

	June 30, 2013	December 31, 2012
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 94,329	$ 282,231
Working capital (deficiency)/surplus	(35,372)	215,471
Total assets	1,035,780	979,726
Total liabilities	165,418	108,650

At June 30, 2013, the Company had a combined cash and short-term investment balance of $94.3 million compared to $282.2 million at December 31, 2012. The change of $187.9 million in the cash and cash equivalents balance for the first half of 2013 can be attributed to investment in development for $185.9 million, primarily at Sunshine's West Ells project area, and $8.9 million used in corporate operating activities offset by net cash provided from financing activities of $6.9 million. At June 30, 2013, the Company's working capital deficiency was $35.4 million.

The following table summarizes the Company's cash flow used in operations:

	For the three months ended June 30,		For the six months ended June 30,
	2013	2012	2013	2012
Net loss	$ (8,327)	(4,673)	(16,584)	(37,004)
Finance costs	816	66	2,557	17,164
Expense portion of IPO costs	-	-	-	10,863
Unrealized foreign exchange loss/(gain)	(145)	5,817	(192)	(634)
Interest income	(477)	(936)	(1,249)	(1,017)
Depreciation	107	66	211	126
Share-based payment expense	2,226	2,516	4,866	4,734
Employee share savings plan	54	-	54	-
Cash flow used in operations	(5,746)	2,856	(10,337)	(5,768)

This non-IFRS measurement is intended to provide additional information and should not be considered in isolation or as substitute for measures of performances prepared in accordance with IFRS. The above table reconciles the non-IFRS measurements "Cash flow used in operations" from "Net loss for the period", the nearest IFRS measure. Cash flow used in operations is defined as net loss as reported, addback or deduct non-cash items including expensed portion of IPO costs, fair value adjustment on warrants, finance costs, share-based payments, unrealized portion of foreign exchange adjustments, depreciation and interest income.

Cash flow used in operations in the three and six months ended June 30, 2013 totaled $5.7 million and $10.3 million compared to (cash generated from operations of) $2.9 million and (cash flow used in operations of) $5.8 million for the same periods in 2012. The change of $8.6 million for the second quarter of 2013 is primarily due to $10.9 million for expensed IPO costs offset by $6.0 million of foreign exchange gains for the same period in 2012 and change in net loss by $3.7 million. For the six months ended June 30, 2013, the decrease in cash flow used in operations was $4.6 million due to savings in finance costs of $14.6 million and $10.9 million of expensed IPO costs, offset by $20.5 million for the change in net loss for the same period in 2012. Given the nature of its business and stage of development, cash flow used in operations is a small portion of the Company's total cash needs and expenditures.

For the three month period ended June 30, 2013, finance expense increased by $0.7 million primarily for $0.5 million of standby costs on the Credit Facility and other financing related costs of $0.2 million. Finance expense for the six month period ended June 30, 2013 decreased by $14.6 million to $2.6 million from $17.2 million for the same period in 2012, primarily due to $13.0 million for share issue costs expensed in the prior period, the extinguishment of the share repurchase obligation for $4.0 million offset by $1.6 million for expenditures on and related to credit facilities and $0.8 million for accretion on provisions.

In October 2012, the Company signed a credit facility agreement (the "Credit Facility") with a group of financial institutions with an amount available of up to $200 million, subject to meeting certain tests. The Credit Facility is unavailable and undrawn at June 30, 2013 due to an agreement amendment to defer reporting of certain financial covenants until September 30, 2013. For the quarter ended June 30, 2013, the Company incurred $0.5 million for standby fees. The amount available for draw under the facility depends on the value attributed to the Company's Proved reserves by its independent engineers, while drawdown is subject to, among other things, demonstrating sufficient funding (including draws under the Credit Facility) to complete the West Ells project to a defined stage.

In the second quarter of 2012, the Company drew and repaid $30.0 million under a previously available $100.0 million credit facility agreement (the "Loan Agreement") with a significant shareholder of the Company. Since the loan was classified as a financial liability and accounted for as other liabilities at amortized cost, the Company recorded non-cash finance costs of $0.3 million. Refer to Section: "Transactions with related parties" for terms and conditions of the Loan Agreement.

General and Administrative Costs

	For the three months ended June 30, 2013			2012

General and administrative cost, which includes salaries, consulting and benefits, rent, and other general administrative costs, for the three month period ended June 30, 2013 increased by $0.7 million to $5.6 million compared to $4.9 million for the same period in 2012. For the six months ended June 30, 2013, general and administrative expense increased by $1.5 million to $10.0 million compared to $8.5 million for the same period in 2012, respectively. The increase in expense is primarily attributed to higher compensation costs as the Company continues to hire staff for its ongoing development. The Company's headcount (including employees and consultants) grew to 217 as of June 30, 2013 from 137 at June 30, 2012. During the three and six months ended June 30, 2013, the Company capitalized salaries, consulting and benefits, rent and other general administrative costs related to capital investment of $2.7 million and $5.7 million compared to $2.4 million and $5.0 million for the same periods in 2012, respectively.

Share-based payments

	For the three months ended June 30, 2013			2012

Share-based payments expense	7,370	2,504	4,866	7,475	2,741	4,734

Share-based compensation expense for the three and six months ended June 30, 2013 was $2.2 million and $4.9 million compared to $2.5 million and $4.7 million for the same period in 2012, respectively. The fair value of share-based payments associated with the granting of stock options and preferred shares is recognized by the Company in its consolidated financial statements. Fair value is determined using the Black-Scholes option pricing model.

The Company capitalizes a portion of the share-based compensation expense using the same methodology associated with capitalized salaries and benefits. For each of the three and six months ended June 30, 2013 and 2012, the Company capitalized $1.1 million and $2.5 million, compared to $1.3 million and $2.7 million of share-based payments, respectively.

Other Income

	For the three months ended June 30,		For the six months ended June 30,
	2013	2012	2013	2012
Foreign exchange gain – realized	-	7,873	-	8,402
Foreign exchange gain/(loss) - unrealized	145	(5,817)	192	634
Interest income from term deposits	477	936	1,249	1,017
	622	2,992	1,441	10,053

Other income for the three months ended June 30, 2013 decreased by $2.4 million to $0.6 million from $3.0 million in 2012 and for the six months ended June 30, 2013 decreased by $8.7 million to $1.4 million from $10.1 million in the first half of 2012, respectively. The change is primarily due to a net realized foreign exchange gain of $2.1 million for the second quarter of 2012 and realized foreign exchange gains of $8.4 for the first half of 2012. For the decrease related to interest income of $0.5 million in the second quarter of 2013, interest income declined as cash balances are invested in capital projects.

Expensed portion of IPO costs

In the first quarter of 2012, the Company completed a public listing and initial public offering ("IPO") on the HKEX. The IPO raised approximately $570.0 million (HK$4.5 billion) gross proceeds for the Company. In conjunction with this financing, $0.04 million was recognized in the three months ended June 30, 2013 while $16.3 million of the IPO costs were expensed in the six months ended June 30, 2012. Of this amount, $5.3 million was for bonus payments and $11.0 million for IPO related costs such as legal and audit fees.

Depreciation

Depreciation expense was $0.1 million for the three month period ended June 30, 2013 compared to $0.06 million for the same period in 2012. For the six month period ended June 30, 2013, depreciation expense was $0.2 million compared to $0.1 million for the same period in 2012. Since the Company is a development stage company, its crude oil assets are not yet ready for use and therefore, not subject to depletion and depreciation.

Income Taxes

The Company did not recognize any deferred income taxes, which relate primarily to unrecognized tax losses, for the three and six months ended June 30, 2013 and 2012. Recognition of tax losses is based on the Company's consideration of its internal development plan for its asset base and the assumption as to whether or not these tax losses will be utilized before their expiry dates. At June 30, 2013, the Company had total available tax deductions of approximately $1.0 billion, with unrecognized tax losses starting to expire in 2027.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

		June 30, 2013		December 31, 2012
Working capital (deficiency)/surplus	$	(35,372)	$	215,471
Shareholders' equity		870,362		871,076
	$	905,734	$	655,605

Working capital deficiency of $35.4 million is comprised of $94.3 million of cash and cash equivalents, offset by a non cash working capital deficiency of $129.7 million. The Company's strategy is to access sufficient capital, through equity issuances, joint ventures and the utilization of debt, in order to maintain a strong capital base for the objectives of maintaining financial flexibility and to sustain the future development of the business. The Company manages its capital structure in order to continue as a going concern and makes adjustments relative to changes in economic conditions and the Company's risk profile. In order to manage risk, the Company may from time to time issue shares and adjust its capital spending to manage current working capital levels. The Company's liquidity may be adversely affected if the Company's access to the capital markets is hindered, whether as a result of financial market conditions generally or as a result of conditions specific to the Company. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern and to realize the carrying value of its assets and discharge its liabilities when due is dependent on the successful completion of a financing or monetizing assets. There is no certainty that these and other strategies will be successful.

For the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2013, the Company reported a net loss of $8.3 million and $16.6 million, respectively. At June 30, 2013, the Company had negative working capital of $35.4 million and an accumulated deficit of $184.7 million. The Company's recent losses and negative cash flow have resulted in a material uncertainty that casts significant doubt about the appropriateness of the use of the going concern assumption. The appropriateness of the going concern basis is dependent upon, among other things, the ability to obtain debt or equity financing in order to have sufficient funding to meet its obligations that enables the Company to continue as a going concern, the ability to generate sufficient cash from operations and future profitable operations. There can be no assurance the Company will be able to continue as a going concern.

In October 2012, the Company negotiated and signed a $200 million Credit Facility with a syndicate of financial institutions. The amount available for draw under the facility depends on the value attributed to the Company's Proved reserves by its independent engineers, while drawdown is subject to, among other things, demonstrating sufficient funding (including draws under the Credit Facility) to complete the West Ells project to a defined stage. Subsequent to period end, the Credit Facility was amended to defer the regular reporting of the sufficient funding test to the third quarter of 2013. $Nil is available amount under the Credit Facility as at June 30, 2013 and, as such, the Credit Facility has been excluded from the capital structure.

The Company is exposed to risks arising from fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates and the volatility of those rates. This exposure primarily relates to certain expenditure commitments, deposits, accounts receivable and accounts payable which are denominated in US dollars and/or HK dollars. The Company manages this risk by monitoring foreign exchange rates and evaluating their effects on using Canadian or U.S. vendors as well as timing of transactions. Thus, exchange rate fluctuations can affect the fair value of future cash flows.

The Company had no forward exchange rate contracts in place as at or during the three and six months ended June 30, 2013. If exchange rates to convert from HK dollars to Canadian dollars had been $0.10 higher or lower with all other variables held constant, foreign cash held at June 30, 2013 would have been impacted by approximately $10. At June 30, 2013, the Company held approximately HK$3.4 million or $0.5 million using the June 30, 2013 exchange rate of 7.643, as cash in the Company's Hong Kong bank account.

The Company's $94.3 million in cash and cash equivalents as at June 30, 2013 are held in accounts with third party financial institutions and consist of invested cash and cash in the Company's operating accounts. The cash equivalents portion is invested in high yield savings and high grade liquid term deposits. To date, the Company has experienced no loss or lack of access to its cash in operating accounts, invested cash or cash equivalents. However, the Company can provide no assurance that access to its invested cash and cash equivalents will not be affected by adverse conditions in the financial markets. While the Company monitors the cash balances in its operating and investment accounts and adjusts the cash balances as appropriate, these cash balances could be affected if the underlying financial institutions or corporations fail or are subject to other adverse conditions in the financial markets.

On August 6, 2013, the Corporation announced the Board of Directors has directed management of the Corporation to commence a strategic review process to identify, examine and consider a range of strategic alternatives available to Sunshine, with a view to progressing its oilsands development strategy and to preserving and maximizing shareholder value. This process could result in one or more strategic transactions being completed by the Corporation including, debt or equity financing of the Corporation, a joint venture or other strategic transaction involving Sunshine, or its assets, and a third party. There can be no assurance any of these alternatives will be completed.

Recent accounting pronouncements issued but not yet adopted

The International Accounting Standard Board (the "IASB") issued a number of new and revised International Accounting Standards ("IASs"), International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs"), amendments and related Interpretations ("IFRICs") (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "New IFRSs") which are effective for the Company's financial period beginning on January 1, 2013. The Company has reviewed new and revised accounting pronouncements that have been issued. The impact of these standards are disclosed in Note 3, “New Accounting Pronouncements and Changes in Accounting Policies” in the consolidated financial statements.

Critical accounting judgments and key sources of estimation uncertainty

In the application of the Company’s accounting policies, management is required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

The following are the critical judgments, apart from those involving estimations, that management has made in the process of applying the Company’s accounting policies and that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements.

Oil and gas reserves

The process of estimating quantities of reserves is inherently uncertain and complex. It requires significant judgments and decisions based on available geological, geophysical, engineering and economic data. These estimates may change substantially as additional data from ongoing development activities and production performance becomes available and as economic conditions impacting oil and gas prices and costs change. Reserve estimates are based on, among other things, current production forecasts, prices, cost estimations and economic conditions.

Reserve estimates are critical to many accounting estimates including:

- determining whether or not an exploratory well has found economically recoverable reserves. Such determinations involve the commitment of additional capital to develop the field based on current estimates of production forecasts, prices and other economic conditions;
- calculating unit-of-production depletion rates. Proved plus probable reserves are used to determine rates that are applied to each unit-of-production in calculating depletion expense; and
- assessing development and production assets for impairment. Estimated future net cash flows used to assess impairment of the Company’s development and production assets are determined using proved and probable reserves.

Independent qualified reserves evaluators prepare reserve estimates for each property at least annually and issue a report thereon. The reserve estimates are reviewed by the Company’s engineers and operational management familiar with the property.

Bitumen Reserves

The estimation of reserves involves the exercise of judgment. Forecasts are based on engineering data, estimated future prices, expected future rates of production and the timing of future capital expenditures, all of which are subject to many uncertainties and interpretations. The Company expects that over time its reserves estimates will be revised either upward or downward based on updated information such as the results of future drilling, testing and production. Reserve estimates can have a significant impact on net earnings, as they are a key component in the calculation of depletion and depreciation and for determining potential asset impairment. For example, a revision to the proved reserves estimates would result in a higher or lower depletion and depreciation charge to net earnings. Downward revisions to reserve estimates may also result in an impairment of oil sands property, plant and equipment carrying amounts.

Exploration and Evaluation costs (“E&E”) are capitalized as exploration and evaluation assets and are assessed for impairment when circumstances suggest that the carrying amount may exceed recoverable value. This assessment involves judgment as to: (i) the likely future commerciality of the asset and when such commerciality should be determined; (ii) future revenues based on forecasted oil and gas prices; (iii) future development costs and production expenses; (iv) the discount rate to be applied to such revenues and costs for the purpose of deriving a recoverable value, and (v) potential value to future E&E activities of any geological and geophysical data acquired.

Decommissioning costs

A provision is required to be recognised for the future retirement obligations associated with the Company’s property and equipment and its exploration and evaluation assets. The decommissioning provision is based on estimated costs, taking into account the anticipated method and extent of restoration consistent with legal, regulatory and constructive requirements, technological advances and the possible use of the site. Since these estimates are specific to the sites involved, there are many individual assumptions underlying the amount provided. These individual assumptions can be subject to change based on actual experience and a change in one or more of these assumptions could result in a materially different amount.

Share repurchase obligation

The Company had a share repurchase obligation in the first quarter of 2012 pursuant to the accounting treatment required under IAS 32. In order to calculate a value for the share repurchase obligation, the effective interest method was applied which is based on estimates and assumptions to determine the effective interest rate.

Share-based payments

The Company recognises compensation expense on options, preferred shares and stock appreciation rights (“SARs”), if granted. Compensation expense is based on the estimated fair value of each option, preferred share and stock appreciation right at its grant date, the estimation of which requires management to make assumptions about future volatility of the Company’s stock price, future interest rates and the timing with respect to exercise of the options. The effects of a change in one or more of these variables could result in a materially different fair value.

Deferred income taxes

The calculation of deferred income taxes is based on a number of assumptions, including estimating the future periods in which temporary differences, tax losses and other tax credits will reverse. Tax interpretations, regulations, and legislation in the various jurisdictions in which the Company and its subsidiary operate are subject to change.

Risk Factors

The business of resource exploration, development and extraction involves a high degree of risk. Material risks and uncertainties affecting the Company, their potential impact and the Company’s principal risk management strategies are substantially unchanged from those disclosed in the Company’s MD&A for the year ended December 31, 2012, which is available at www.sedar.com. The 2012 annual report of the Company is available at the Company’s website, www.sunshineoilsands.com, and the website of the HKEX, www.hkexnews.hk. The Company’s 2012 Annual Information Form is available at www.sedar.com.

Such officers have evaluated, or caused to be evaluated under their supervision, the effectiveness of the Company's internal controls over financial reporting at the financial year end of the company and concluded that the Company's internal controls over financial reporting are effective at the financial year end of the company for the foregoing purpose.

No material changes in the Company's internal controls over financial reporting were identified during the three and six months ended June 30, 2013 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal controls over financial reporting. It should be noted that a control system, including the Company's disclosure and internal controls and procedures, no matter how well conceived, can provide only reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system will be met and it should not be expected that the disclosure and internal controls and procedures will prevent all errors or fraud. In reaching a reasonable level of assurance, management necessarily is required to apply its judgment in evaluating the cost/benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures.

1. Corporation Information

Sunshine Oilsands Ltd. (the “Company”) was incorporated under the laws of the Province of Alberta on February 22, 2007. The address of its principal place of business is 1020, 903 - 8 Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 0P7, Canada. The Company’s shares were listed on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (“SEHK”) on March 1, 2012 pursuant to an initial public offering (“IPO”) and trades under the stock code symbol of “2012”. On January 26, 2012, shareholders of the Company authorized the Company to complete up to a 25:1 share split. The Board of Directors of the Company concluded that a 20:1 share split was appropriate, increasing the number of common shares, preferred shares and stock options to 20 times their previous outstanding amounts. All share and stock option information is therefore presented on a post split basis. On November 16, 2012, the Company completed a listing of its common shares on the Toronto Stock Exchange (“TSX”) and trades under the symbol of “SUO”.

On May 4, 2012, Sunshine Oilsands (Hong Kong) Limited (“Sunshine Hong Kong”) was incorporated in Hong Kong under the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 32 of the Laws of Hong Kong) and is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. The address of the principal place of business for Sunshine Hong Kong is Unit 8504A, 85/F, International Commerce Centre 1 Austin Road West, Kowloon.

2. Basis of Preparation

Going Concern
These condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. The going concern basis of presentation assumes that the Company will continue in operation for the foreseeable future and will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. For the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2013, the Company reported net loss of $8.3 million and $16.5 million, respectively. At June 30, 2013, the Company had negative working capital of $35.4 million and an accumulated deficit of $184.7 million. The Company’s recent losses and negative cash flow have resulted in a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt upon the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern.

The condensed interim consolidated financial statements do not reflect adjustments that would be necessary if the going concern basis was not appropriate. The appropriateness of the going concern basis is dependent upon, among other things, the ability to obtain debt or equity financing in order to have sufficient funding to meet its obligations that enables the Company to continue as a going concern, the ability to generate sufficient cash from operations and future profitable operations. There can be no assurance the Company will be able to continue as a going concern.

Basis of Preparation
The condensed interim consolidated financial information included in this report has been prepared in accordance with IAS 34 ‘Interim Financial Reporting’. The results for the interim periods are unaudited and in the opinion of management include all adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of the results for the periods presented. All such adjustments are of a normal recurring nature. This report should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and related notes for the year ended December 31, 2012.

3. New Accounting Pronouncements and Changes in Accounting Policies

The IASB issued a number of new and revised International Accounting Standards ("IASs"), International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs"), amendments and related Interpretations ("IFRICs") (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "New IFRSs") which are effective for the Company's financial period beginning on January 1, 2013. The Company has reviewed new IFRSs and the impact of these standards is noted below.

IFRS 10, Consolidated Financial Statements
IFRS 10 replaces portions of IAS 27 Consolidated and Separate Financial Statements and interpretation SIC-12 Consolidation - Special Purpose Entities. The new standard requires consolidated financial statements to include all controlled entities under a single control model. On January 1, 2013, the Company determined that the adoption of IFRS 10 did not result in any change in the consolidation status of its wholly owned subsidiaries.

IFRS 11, Joint Arrangements
IFRS 11 applies to accounting for interests in joint arrangements where there is joint control. The standard requires the joint arrangements to be classified as either joint operations or joint ventures. The structure of the joint arrangement would no longer be the most significant factor when classifying the joint arrangement as either a joint operation or a joint venture. In addition, the option to account for joint ventures (previously called jointly controlled entities) using proportionate consolidation will be removed and replaced by equity accounting. On January 1, 2013, the Company determined that the adoption of IFRS 11 did not have any impact on any of its joint arrangements.

IFRS 12, Disclosure of Interests in Other Entities
IFRS 12 includes disclosure requirements about subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates, as well as unconsolidated structured entities and replaces existing disclosure requirements. Due to this new section, the Company will be required to disclose the following: judgments and assumptions made when deciding how to classify involvement with another entity, interests that non-controlling interests have in consolidated entities and the nature of the risks associated with interests in other entities. On January 1, 2013, the Company concluded that the adoption of IFRS 12 did not result in any changes in its disclosure of interests in other entities.

IFRS 13, Fair Value Measurement
IFRS 13 will converge the IFRS requirements for how to measure fair value and the related disclosures. IFRS 13 establishes a single source of guidance for fair value measurements, when fair value is required or permitted by IFRS. Upon adoption, the Company will provide a single framework for measuring fair value while requiring enhanced disclosures when fair value is applied. In addition, fair value will be defined as the “exit price” and concepts of “highest and best use” and “valuation premise” would be relevant only for non-financial assets and liabilities. On January 1, 2013, the Company adopted IFRS 13 on a prospective basis and the adoption of this standard did not have any impact on the Company’s consolidated financial statements.

IFRS 9, Financial Instruments
IFRS 9 was issued by the IASB in November 2009 and October 2010 and replaces IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement. IFRS 9 uses a single approach to determine whether a financial asset is measured at amortized cost or fair value, replacing the multiple rules in IAS 39. The approach in IFRS 9 is based on how an entity manages its financial instruments in the context of its business model and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial assets. Most of the requirements in IAS 39 for classification and measurement of financial liabilities were carried forward unchanged to IFRS 9. The new standard also requires a single impairment method to be used, replacing the multiple impairment methods in IAS 39. IFRS 9 is required to be applied for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2015.

17. Financial instruments

17.1 Capital risk management

The Company can be exposed to financial risks on its financial instruments and in the way that it finances its capital requirements. The Company manages these financial and capital structure risks by operating in a manner that minimizes its exposure to volatility.

The Company's strategy is to access sufficient capital, through equity issuances, joint ventures and the utilization of debt, in order to maintain a strong capital base for the objectives of maintaining financial flexibility and to sustain the future development of the business. The Company manages its capital structure in order to continue as a going concern and makes adjustments relative to changes in economic conditions and the Company's risk profile. In order to manage risk, the Company may from time to time issue shares and adjust its capital spending to manage current working capital levels. The Company expects its current capital resources will not be sufficient to complete its development plans through its current operating period and will be required to raise additional funds through future equity or debt financings. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is therefore dependent on its ability to raise additional funds.

The Company's capital structure currently includes shareholders' equity and working capital as follows:

		June 30, 2013		December 31, 2012
Working capital (deficiency)/surplus	$	(35,372)	$	215,471
Shareholders' equity		870,362		871,076
	$	905,734	$	655,605

There is no change in the Company's objectives and strategies of capital management for the three and six months ended June 30, 2013. In October 2012, the Company negotiated and signed a $200 million Credit Facility (the "Credit Facility") with a syndicate of financial institutions (Note 14). The available amount under the Credit Facility is undrawn at June 30, 2013 and the available amount has been excluded from the capital structure. $Nil is available under the Credit Facility based on certain financial covenants under the terms and conditions of a Credit Facility agreement (Note 14).

17.2 Categories of financial instruments

	June 30, 2013		December 31, 2012
	Carrying amount	Fair value	Carrying amount	Fair value
Financial assets	$	$	$	$
Cash, deposits and other receivables	100,045	100,045	284,811	284,811
Financial liabilities
Other liabilities	135,023	135,023	68,821	68,821

17.3 Fair value of financial instruments

The fair value of cash, term deposits, trade and other receivables, trade and other payables and accrued liabilities approximate their carrying values due to their short term maturity. These financial instruments have been assessed on a Level 1 fair value measurement.

Level 1 fair value measurements are based on quoted prices in active markets. Level 2 fair value measurements are based on valuation models and techniques where the significant inputs are derived from quoted prices or indices. Level 3 fair value measurements are based on unobservable information.

17.4 Financial risk management

Financial risks include market risk (including currency risk, interest rate risk, and price risk), credit risk, liquidity risk and cash flow interest rate risk. The Company does not use any derivative financial instruments to mitigate these risk exposures. The Company does not enter into or trade financial instruments, including derivative financial instruments, for speculative purposes.

17.5 Market risk

Market risk is the risk that changes in market prices will affect the Company's net loss. The objective of market risk management is to manage and control market risk exposures within acceptable limits. There have been no changes over the prior year to the Company's objectives, policies or processes to manage market risks.

The Company is exposed to risks arising from fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates. Thus, exchange rate fluctuations can affect the fair value of future cash flows. This exposure primarily relates to certain expenditure commitments, deposits, and accounts payable which are denominated in US dollars and/or HK dollars. The Company manages this risk by monitoring foreign exchange rates and evaluating their effects on using Canadian or U.S. vendors as well as timing of transactions. The Company had no forward exchange rate contracts in place as at or during the three and six months ended June 30, 2013. If exchange rates to convert from HK dollars to Canadian dollars had been $0.10 higher or lower with all other variables held constant, foreign cash held at June 30, 2013 would have been impacted by approximately $10,000. At June 30, 2013, the Company held approximately HK$3.4 million or $0.5 million using the June 30, 2013 exchange rate of 7.6434, as cash in the Company's Hong Kong bank account.

Commodity price risk is the risk that the value of future cash flows will fluctuate as a result of changes in commodity prices. Commodity prices for petroleum are impacted by world economic events that dictate the levels of supply and demand. The Company has not attempted to mitigate commodity price risk through the use of various financial derivative or physical delivery sales contracts.

17.6 Interest rate risk management

Interest rate risk is the risk that future cash flows will fluctuate as a result of changes in market interest rates. As at June 30, 2013, the Company does not have any floating rate debt.

The Company's cash and cash equivalents consists of cash held in bank accounts and term deposits that earn interest at variable interest rates. Future cash flows from interest income on cash will be affected by interest rate fluctuations. Due to the short-term nature of these financial instruments, fluctuations in market rates do not have a significant impact on estimated fair values or result in material interest rate risk. The Company manages interest rate risk by maintaining an investment policy that focuses primarily on preservation of capital and liquidity. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2013, the interest rate earned on cash equivalents was between 0.5% and 1.35%.

17.7 Credit risk management

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Company if a counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations, and arises principally from the Company's cash, deposits and receivables and GST receivables. As at June 30, 2013, the Company's receivables consisted of 65% from Goods and Services Tax receivable, 3% from oil sale receivables, 17% joint interest billing receivable and 15% from other receivables (December 31, 2012 – 68% from oil sale receivables, 26% from Goods and Services Tax receivable and 6% from other receivables).

The Company's cash and cash equivalents as at June 30, 2013, are held in accounts with third party financial institutions and consist of invested cash and cash in the Company's operating accounts. The cash equivalents portion is invested in high yield savings and high grade liquid term deposits.

The Company is exposed to credit risk from the purchasers of its crude oil. At June 30, 2013, there was no allowance for impairment of accounts receivable and the Company did not provide for any doubtful accounts nor was it required to write-off any receivables, as no receivables were considered past due or impaired (December 31, 2012 - $Nil). The Company considers any amounts outstanding in excess of 120 days past due.

17.8 Liquidity risk management

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to plan that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when due, using either equity or debt proceeds. At June 30, 2013, the Company had negative working capital of $35.4 million and an accumulated deficit of $184.7 million. The Company's recent losses and negative cash flow have resulted in a material uncertainty that casts significant doubt about the appropriateness of the use of the going concern assumption.

The Company utilizes authorizations for expenditures to manage its planned capital expenditures and actual expenditures are regularly monitored and modified as considered necessary.

The service provider is a company which is controlled by a director who is a principal of a significant shareholder of the Company, and who also holds a senior management position with the service provider company.

The Company had a Credit Facility Agreement with a non-arm's length lender in which a credit facility for general working capital purposes was available of up to a maximum of $100 million. In the fourth quarter of 2012, this Credit Facility Agreement was terminated.
